

PISD Internet Use Procedure

The Internet is a source of instructional material to which students and staff members have access both in and outside of schools. The Internet provides access to curricular and other educational material, and experience in searching for, finding, evaluate, and using information delivered electronically.

The Internet can be accessed through an increasing variety of electronic devices including those beyond what is provided by the school district. Resources and the material available on the Internet vary in quality and appropriateness for school instructional purposes. Materials entering a school via Internet sources and resources may have not been selected ahead of time in a manner similar to the way other instructional material is selected, such as textbooks, software, or library books.

Internet safety issues also arise around the access to and use of the Internet, Internet-ready, and other electronic devices in a manner that promotes safe, civil, and legal online activity for children, digital citizenship and literacy, and recognizing and responding to cyberbullying. Issues of protecting children from scams, cyber crimes, including crimes by online predators also arise.

Any implementation of the use of student-owned personal digital device for instructional use will require separate signed approval by parent/guardian.
